

Biography

Carlos Leandro Suarez Crespo , 1980.

Artistic name Cale was born in Manzanillo, Cuba in 1980. From an early age he is know for his artistic skill with the brush. He graduated with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in the Pedagogical Institute Frank Pais Garcia of Santiago de Cuba and worked during four years in the art school of his hometown.

This artist is today a revelation for the Contemporary Art, with majestic works full of messages of the everyday life. For his viewers he provides a visual recreation, with elegant touches in each stroke, contrasting colors with different environments and scenarios.

The work of this young artist have been exhibited in more than 35 collective shows and 10 personal shows in Cuba and another countries. His work has been awarded in many cases, such as with his piece Recitación en Elogio a una Reina and Sombra de Fe. He is also recognized by the international press, with the opinion of great art critics such as Jose Veigas Zamora, Yanet Ortiz, David Mateo, among other art critics. Many of his works have been sold to collectors from different countries such as United States, Cuba, Italy, Canada and Mexico.