

Biography – Dionel Delgado

Dionel Delgado was born in Havana, Cuba in 1983. Delgado graduated from the acclaimed San Alejandro Fine Arts Academy in 2005.

His works have been exhibited in a vast number of museums and galleries throughout Cuba, Mexico and United States. To name a few, In Havana, La Acacia and the Museo de Arte Colonial, two of the most notable art spaces of the city have had the work of Delgado exhibited several times. In Mexico, Hacienda, Casa Museo and Museo Cultural de las Artes Graficas have been witnesses of the passion for visual arts and culture Delgado displays in his paintings. One of his most important art pieces belongs to the private collection of Foosaner Art Museum in Melbourne Florida, United States.

His oeuvre is part of a traveling group exhibition throughout Mexican museums as part of the book Revelaciones, written by Martha Zamora, Frida Kahlo's biographer.

His paintings can be found in private collections throughout Mexico, Italy, Spain, United States, Belgium, Nicaragua, Panama, Canada, Guatemala, Holland and Germany.