

Carlos Jordao was born in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Having lived most of his life in Brazil, due to the characteristics of his previous work he had the opportunity to travel around the country, from large cities like Sao Paulo to remote villages in the Amazon rainforest. It was during this period that he developed his habit of walking the city streets observing the small details that were unique in each region, but constantly going unnoticed by many people. Walking the world collecting singular images of apparently ordinary subjects became a striking feature of his work as a photographer. Carlos currently lives in Miami, Florida where he is working on his Master of Fine Arts degree in Visual Arts.
